
COUNSELOR, SOCIAL WORKER, AND MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPIST BOARD

- Provides a six-month registration extension for master's level counselor, social worker, and marriage and family therapist trainees who have graduated but not yet completed all requirements for licensure.

Registration for master's level trainee graduates

(R.C. 4757.10)

Current law requires the Counselor, Social Worker, and Marriage and Family Therapist Board to adopt rules providing for voluntary registration of master's level counselor, social worker, and marriage and family therapist trainees. The bill provides a six-month registration extension for those registered trainees who have graduated but not yet completed all requirements for licensure.
